Vania's on the Rise

Vania lives with her mother, Ruth, and little brothers in Cochabamba, Bolivia. She was born with physical, vision, and hearing disabilities, and when she was little, these did not slow her down. When she started school, however, other children made her feel different. She started to resist going.

But thanks to her Chalice sponsor and our Tukuy site staff, Vania's school life is transforming. They helped her get glasses and a hearing aid. They worked with Ruth and her teachers to better support Vania's learning and build a more inclusive classroom.

Vania now feels more confident and happier at school.
