Making Wonderful Moments

Our Yapacani site in Bolivia always throws a multi-day Christmas festival. Last year, 1900 children (and 50 volunteers!) came for games, songs, crafts, skits, and Christmas cheer.

This Christmas, the site wanted to give a special gift to the whole community. They set up a beautiful Christmas nativity at the local church, strung with glowing lights.

“For us,” says site leader Noemi, “the most important thing is to give the children a wonderful moment, where we teach them that... Christmas is also a time to perform good deeds, share love and peace, and celebrate family unity.”
