Alicia's Fruitful Endeavor

Every Advent, our Guadalupe site arranges a Christmas parade through the streets of El Alto, one of the highest major cities in the world. This year, 650 people gathered in creative costumes to commemorate the Nativity of Christ. The Virgin Mary, Joseph, magi, stars, angels, and animals all brought Bethlehem to Bolivia.

At their celebration, the children performed a nativity play and danced. Then comes the traditional treats: hot chocolate and panettone, a fluffy dessert bread that originated in Italy but is now a Christmas staple across Latin America.
